PUTTING UP THE PROBLEM TO THE ALLIED PREMIERS

American Suggestion That They Leave Reparations to Financiers ADMINISTRATION HAS TRADE IS TAKING Was Only Made as an Alternative

Washington, Dec. 30.—(Associated) Pless).-Disclosure by Secretary of tate Hughes in his New Haven speech last night, of the belief of the government that an international commission of financiers, including Americans, might well be called to recommend settlement of the reparations crises, apparently leaves the next move to the allied premiers. The American suggestion, Mr. Hughes Happy Occasion for the Wanderingspecified, was offered as an alternative in the event that the premiers at the Paris meeting Tuesday fail to find a basis for adjustment of views.
